4-Hers Celebrate Bicentennial Day

4-H Club students in grade 6, Mrs. Almond's room, are shown dressed up to celebrate Bicentennial Day held in their classroom on October 17.

Rev. Johnston To Conduct Salem Revival

The Rev. Stuart Allen Johnston will be speaker at Revival Services at Salem United Methodist Church, Spout Spring, beginning Sunday, November 2, and continuing through November 7.

Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. each night. There will also be special music at each of the services and the MYF of the church will provide nursery for young children.

Rev. Johnston was appointed at the Annual 1975 Conference to become pastor of Concord United Methodist Charge including Bethlehem and Salem United Methodist Churches. He assumed the pastorate the last Sunday in June of this year.

A native of Portsmouth, Ohio, he is a graduate of Wheelersburg High School, served 37 months in the South Pacific area during World War II with the U.S. Navy as a C.B.; graduated from Emory & Henry College; and his eminary work was done at Westminister Theological Seminary in Westminister, Maryland. Rev. Johnston was certified in church management from graduate school of American University in Washington, D.C. He is a member of Fraternal Masons #52 AF & AM, Lawrenceville and a member of the Scottish Rite at Acca Temple in Richmond.

He is married to the former Miss Kathleen Blessings of Narrows, Virginia and they are the parents of two sons, Stuart, G. Johnston of Manassas and Joy, who is a student at Rustburg High School.

Prior to accepting the pastorate of the Concord United Methodist Charge, he served as pastor of the Middlesex United Methodist Charge in Saluda, Virginia.

Christmas Seals Have Been Mailed

Dr. Rufus Gordon, honorary campaign chairman for the Central Region, Virginia Lung Association announces the 1975 Christmas Seals are in the mail. When yours arrive, please look very carefully at them. They represent children from all over the United States.

Each seal was designed by an elementary school student. Virginia's artist is little 11-year-old Carol Carpenter, of Richmond.

Traditional Christmas Seals have been the Lung Association's tool in helping lung disease patients for 68 years. People suffering with emphysema, tuberculosis, and other crippling respiratory diseases have benefited in past years by the generosity of Virginia's citizens in using Christmas Seals on their holiday mail.

"There is still much to be done in lung disease research, patient-family education on living with lung disease, and medical and nursing education," the 1975 chairman said.

"Won't you support the Virginia Lung Association's effort to bring better respiratory health to all Virginians? Please send a generous contribution to the Virginia Lung Association when you receive your Christmas Seals," Dr. Gordon urges.

The Virginia Lung Association, Central Region serves the counties of Amelia, Amherst, Appomattox, Buckingham, Campbell, Charlotte, Cumberland, Halifax, Lunenburg, Nottoway, Pittsylvania and Prince Edward and the Cities of Danville and Lynchburg.

"It's a matter of life and breath".

J. J. "Jut" Morris

Honored On Retirement

"Jut" Morris was honored Tuesday evening with a retirement dinner given by Lawson Ford, Inc. at Maudes Restaurant.

Other than employees of Lawson Ford, those attending were Mrs. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. John S. Grinels.

Having sold cars for the past twenty-five years, J. J. "Jut" Morris retired Sept. 1, 1975 on the advise of his doctors.

He began as a car salesman in February of 1950 when he joined GRINELS MOTOR CO. In 1967 Morris was appointed Vice-President and Sales Manager by Mr. John S. Grinels, owner of the local Ford dealership at that time. In August of 1970, when LAWSON FORD, INC. acquired the business from Grinels, "Jut" continued to work there as Sales Manager, a position he held until his recent retirement.

Morris says, "I enjoyed selling cars and invite all my friends and former customers to continue to deal with Lawson Ford as I am still very closely tied to the business. After twenty-five years, I feel a part of it."

"I enjoy hunting and fishing and much of my time now will be spent doing just that - hunting and fishing", he stated.

A native of Appomattox County, he is married to the former Miss Lorene Martin. They are the parents of two children, R. Glen Morris of Pamplin and Mrs. Shirley M. Blanks of Lynchburg.

Morris is a member of Trinity United Methodist Church, Concord, where he served for eleven years as Chairman of the Official Board and as Secretary - Treasurer of the Sunday School for thirteen years.

E. B. "Dick" Bland, Vice President and General Manager at Lawson Ford stated that they appreciated his loyal service throughout the years and really hated to see him leave, but look forward to the visits he'll be making to see the folks at Lawson Ford.
